LOCAL MATTERS.

To Correspondents. We are continually receiving communications on not attach their preper names to the articles sen+; and we take this occasion of repeating that nothing can be published in THE DAILY NEWS without being indorsed by some responsible individual.

CHANGE OF RAILROAD STATIONS .- The Northeastern Railroad Company have discontinued the two stations formerly known as Strawberry and shape of elegant white kid slippers. As these are Gaillards, and have substituted one which will be called Oakley. The patrons of this road are re- vise all who design participating in the May frolics qusted to notice the change, and thus avoid any to repair to the big boot and hunt the slipper. future embarrassments.

DISTRICT COURT-HON. GEO. W. LOGAN. Presiding .- The Court opened at 10 A. M., and the following cases were tried :

The State vs. Edward Wright, Larceny. Guilty. The State vs. Toney Brooks, Larcony. Guilty. The State vs. John Washington and Henry atias Hugh Thompson, Larceny of Fowls. Guilty. The State vs. Thos. Williams, Larceny of Gotton. Continued.

The State vs. Joseph Lasey and George Charles Larceny. Not Pros.

THE STEAMSHIP CHAMPION .- This new and valuable addition to the superior line of side-wheel steamships, to be run between this port and New York, consigned to Messrs. STREET, BRO. & Co., arrived here vesterday, having started on Monday last. The Champion is a vessel of superior appearance, having elegant and roomy accommodations for passengers and large capacity for freight, and she has sufficient power to make the run in good time from this port to New York. She is in charge of Captain L. M. MURBAY, so favorably known to all the travelling public before the war, as master in the old and favorite line of New York steamships.

WHITEWASHING .- As this is the time of year dwelling as well as to improve the appearance of when the Jockey club was in its glory, and a four-inhis fences and outhouses, we place before our hand not such a rare sight. We congratulate the forreaders a most excellent recipe for mixing whitewash: "Take a clean, water tight barrel, or other suitable cask, and put into it a half bushel of lime. Slack it by pouring water over it, boiling hot, and in sufficient quantity to cover it five inches deep, and stir it in water, and add two pounds of sulphate of zinc and one of common salt. These will cause the wash to barden, and prevent its cracking, which gives an unseemly appearance to the work. If desirable, a beautiful cream color may be added to the above wash by adding three pounds of yellow ochre; or a good pearl or lead color, by adding lamp, vine or ivory black. For fawn color, add four pounds of amber, Turkish or American—the latter is the cheapest—one pound of Indian red, and one pound common lamp-black. For common stone color, add four pounds of amber and two pounds of lamp-black. This wash may be applied with a common whitewash brush." ---0---

MAYOR'S COURT-April 24.-James Gaillard, a colored inexperienced youth, to whom was given a five dollar bill, by one J. Lopez, that he might take ten cents out of it to pay himself for a job, and who went to change the bill, but never came back, and who when he was caught, admitted he had bought a pair of shoes with part of the money, was locked up for ten days, which will save so much wear of his sole leather. Julia Smoke, a colored woman who was brought to the Guard House in a cart, and did not make her appearance before his honor, was accused by a girl named Elvira, of stealing a few days ago, a sum of money from out the mattrass of the prosecutrix and of blowing it out, and, also of visiting her room on Tuesday night and attempting to carry off a bundle of clothes, but being detected and threatened with the police, laid the apparel on the bed, and finished the evenings performance by raising the window, which was near thirty feet high, and making an extraordinary leap to the ground. As there apparently were no bones broken, it is rational to sunpose that her head struck first. His Honor decided that if she was really hurt she should be sent to up for ten days. A case of carrying concealed weapons, was dered to be sent to the Provost Marshal.

the hospital, but if uninjured she should be locked

Two or three cases of determined opposition to the present temperance agitation which is pervading the Eastern States were brought up, and discussed, with his honor, who to judge by his manner seemed to have the best of the argument.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS AND COMMON PLEAS-Judge MUNROE presiding.-The Court was opened at the usual hour, and the Jury answering to their names, the case of the State vs. HELENA PLODGER, nee SMITH, for receiving stolen goods, was called, John Phillips, Esq., appearing for the

After some challenges the Jury were organized and the witnesses were examined. From their testimony it appeared that shortly after the close of the war some Cotton was stolen from the plantation of Mr. MUIRHEAD, in Christ Church Parish. which was subsequently found to be in the possession of HELENA PLODGER, then SMITH, who kept a store at the corner of Concord and March streets. The prosecution went to prove that the Cotton was received knowing it to be stolen, and was purchased from irresponsible parties, but the defence argued that when the Cotton was rafted to the city by the negroes it was at that time when no questions were asked as to the ownership, but bergains were made by every one, especially regarding Cotton.

The Judge briefly summed up the leading points and charged the Jury, who, without leaving their seats, returned a verdict of not guilty, and the prisoner was discharged.

The Grand Jury, through their foreman, returned the following bills with their findings.

The State vs. RICHARD MURPHY and CHARLES SMITH, two indictments for kidnapping seamen. True Bill. The State vs. John Penders, Jas. Emith and THOMAS RILEY, for boarding a vessel and not wearing a license. True Bill. · The State vs. NELSON BERWICK and JAS. HARRIS, alias Harrison, Burglary and larceny. True Bill.

JAS. P. ROSE, MARY E. BOLLOUGH and MARY BOL-LOUGH, charged with arson, were arraigned and plead not guilty. Their Counsel R. W. SEYMOUR. Esq., moved that the t. al be postponed to Saturday and the females be eleased upon bail, which was granted, and the Court adjourned.

STOLL, WEBB & Co., No. 287 King street, respectfully inform their friends and the public that they will receive at par, for the next ten days, bills receivable of the State of South Carolina, in exchange for dry goods.

SOMETHING NEW .- The citizens of this staid old own were somewhat startled yesterday afterernoon, to observe a high buggy rapidly moving down the street behind four pair of fine horses. The four-in-hand team attracted considerable attention, and was supposed by some uncivilized heathens to be the forerunner of a circus, but the when one desires to renovate the interior of his wear heads marvelled and thought of the time tunate possessor on his acquisition, and trust that his fancy team will introduce new life among us, if it does not produce a revolution in the present style of vehicles, but until this does take place, he will continue to be the centre of attraction. SOUTHERN LAFE INSURANCE COMPANY .- The nocessity for insuring property has long been known but it is only recently that the principle of extending this insurance to the life of the party was adopted. Since that time numerous companies have been formed for this purpose, and the patronage of the public proves that they have established themselves firmly in their confidence. In our own city several companies have opened offices and the agents proffer their services to the people. Among these we would direct attention to the Southern Life Insurance Company. Few corporations can show a more healthy exhibit of their assets and liabilities than is presented in their advortisement in another column, and as the principal object is to be insured in a strong and good company, we would advise those wishing to insure to apply to Mr. W. PANNALL, the agent of this company, and the information he can furnish will convince them that they have come to the right place. The office is over the Bank of Charleston, and the agent, Mr. PANNALL, is a young Kentuckian, who has determined to make Charleston his future home.

Pomology.—There are few cities without a sub urban population, who, apart from the smoke, YEADON, Esq., appeared for the defence. The dust and noise of the streets, can employ their prisoner plead guilty; paid the fine imposed, $100, time in raisin; the "kindly fruits of the earth." This "rus in urbe" is one of the principal charms of a large city, and the farms that are on the IN THE ADMIRALTY COURT.—DE COSTA and Ma- outskirts are both a source of profit to the owner, and of pleasure to the citizen.

Charleston Neck was once composed wholly of these farms, but as the property increased in value it was cut up into building lots, and the farmers moved furthen into the country. At present, Line street is the boundary of the city proper, but beyond that, the cultivated lands commence, and the farms are of all sizes, from a few acres to a young plantation.

of Rutledge street, enabled many persons to visit these farms, and from the time the first strawberry was seen above ground there has been a constant stream of customers. Nunan's farm on the street of the same name has long been the rendezvous for epicures, and the reputation of his early strawberries extends from Charleston to the Hub. They have been shipped by every steamer, yet the supply seems inexhaustible, and promises o continue during the summer. To those interested in agriculture a visit to Nunan's farm would both please and interest; for his time is not devoted to strawberries, but is divided between the different products to be found on a well conducted farm. To speak of the early peas, cabbages, tomatoes, oranges, grapes, and the combination of fruits, flowers and vegetables that grow in luxuriance on this spot, would be an impossibility, and we advise all who wish to spend a few hours pleasantly to pay Mr. NUNAN a visit-certainly before the strawberry season is over.

The Greenville and Columbia Railroad. To the Editor of the Daily News:

Human nature is disposed to grumble, more particularly in this age of steam and two-forty progress. Every thing must be done in a hurry, from reconstruction down, without making any allowances whatever. Some people would grumble if they were in Paradise. "Sich, however, savs Sam SLICK, i- nater."

We have recently heard several, yes divers complaints alleged against the Greenville and Columbia Railroad in respect to transportation of freight. Now, if those who make these complaints understood the peculiar difficulties under which this road abors at the present, and has for sometime, they would, likely; be more indulgent.

The Greenville and Columbia Railroad has, to our knowledge, only about thirty-five cars for transportation of freight. They have been receiving on an average per day for months thirty car loads of freight from the South Carolina Railroad slone, also freight from the Charlotte and South Carolina Railroad, besides local freight from the city. It is impossible for the agent at Columbia o have on hand, at any time, more than fifteen cars, for some must always be on the road. It will be seen, therefore, by any reasonable man that it is a matter of impossibility for the agent to send off the freight at once when he receives far more than he has cars for transportation Hence the cause of delay. We know the agent (Mr. R. H. WALTON). He is an obliging, stirring man, and has done every thing in his power to facilitate the transportation of freight. Under his charge are three clerks, who labor assiduously and diligently from 6 A. M. until 9 P. M. Now what more can be done? We trust that at an early date all this will be obviated, and a sufficient number of cars or 'to road to transport any quantity of freight. Ke-
